Sir,

With reference to your letter No.J.1910/Cts.114-17-2 dated 1st Instant, enquiring whether there is any objection for the trial of the accused Potti Venkatesu Chetty in British India, I have the honor to submit herewith for information a copy of the memo of the District Superintendent of Police, Kolar, stating that he sees no reason to hand over the case to Palmanair Court. I am however of a different opinion as the balance of convenience is in favor of trial in British India.

The accused is a native of British India and Section 188 Criminal Procedure Code is therefore applicable and to grant a -- certificate for proceeding with the case in the British Indian Court is easier than holding here first, a preliminary enquiry for extradition and then a regular enquiry and getting witnesses from British India on two different occasions. The records are resubmitted to the Deputy Commissioner Kolar, with the information that the case referred to has already been -- taken on file by the Mulbagal Police and that I see no reason to hand over the case to Palamanair court. The Inspector of Mulbagal has been asked to complete the investigation and cause the arrest of the accused by the Palamanair Police and obtain remand for two months and move for the surrender of the accused after the preliminary enquiry.
